Tuesday, August 19th, NBC from 8am-9am

Please tune in to Maria Shriver's interview of Cindy Crawford concerning the PCB issue at Malibu High and Juan Cabrillo.

PCBs were banned by Congress in 1976 because they create an "unacceptable risk of injury to health"; our children and teachers will continue to be exposed to PCBs until the sources are removed from our schools.

Help America Unite to protect the health of our children and teachers.
